DIFFICULTY : EASY

QUESTIONS

1. Mohamed Salah is (circle the correct answer)

Egyptian Scouser English

2. What do you think arguably means? Use the context of the sentence to help you.

_____

_____

3. Name three things that Salah has done for others through his charity work.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

4. True or false: Mohamed Salah demonstrated resilience and resolve by never giving up despite sometimes struggling to make it as a professional footballer.

_____

5. How do you win the Golden Boot award?

_____

6. What footballing event propelled Salah to having God-like status in Egypt?

_____

DIFFICULTY : EASY

7. Name the three practices of Islam that are common in Salah's life and explain what happens at/for this practice.

Name of practice	What happens

8. How does Mohamed Salah inspire others? Give two different reasons.

DIFFICULTY : EASY

ANSWERS

1. Mohamed Salah is (circle the correct answer)

Egyptian Scouser English

2. What do you think arguably means? Use the context of the sentence to help you.

People may argue or disagree with this point of view or fact.

3. Name three things that Salah has done for others through his charity work.

Name any three from the following –
Given away thousands of pounds to the Egyptian government and other organisations/ helped build schools/ helped build mosques/ helped 450 families with a monthly allowance/ fronted a drug addiction campaign.

4. True or false: Mohamed Salah demonstrated resilience and resolve by never giving up despite sometimes struggling to make it as a professional footballer.

True

5. How do you win the Golden Boot award?

By scoring more goals than any other player in one football season.

6. What footballing event propelled Salah to having God-like status in Egypt?

Scoring the 95th-minute penalty against Congo secured a 2 – 1 win and this helping the Egyptian national team qualify for the World Cup.

7. Name the three practices of Islam that are common in Salah's life and explain what happens at/for this practice.

Name of practice	What happens
Sujood	Act of prostration (lying on the ground)
Ramadan	Strict fasting is observed from dawn to sunset (for a month)
Zakat	A Muslim obligation to donate a percentage of your income to benefit people less fortunate than yourself.

8. How does Mohamed Salah inspire others? Give two different reasons.

Give two reasons for any of the following or similar responses –

Salah inspires others through being humble of his footballing talent, by giving lots of money to charities and other organisations/ by helping others less fortunate than him/ having never given up on his dream / being dedicated and determined to be successful / for travelling nine hours every day as a child to get to and from his football training.